1. $\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{1}{2} = \frac{1}{4}$

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It consists of several lines of dense, flowing script, with some lines starting with large, decorative initial letters. The handwriting is characteristic of a historical cursive style, possibly from the 16th or 17th century. The text is arranged in a single column, filling most of the page. There are some small, dark spots or stains on the paper, particularly in the middle section. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical document.

Handwritten marginal note in Arabic script, likely a library or ownership stamp.

Main body of handwritten text in Arabic script, consisting of approximately 12 lines. The script is dense and cursive, typical of historical Arabic manuscripts. The text appears to be a formal document or a letter, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the use of certain phrases and the structured layout. There are some ink blots and variations in line spacing, suggesting it was written by hand.
